Access America and US Airways Vacations Partner to Protect Customers' Travel Investments and Vacation Memories

Post-Departure Travel Insurance Benefits Will Complement Existing Waiver Program

RICHMOND, VA (January 9, 2006) – Access America, a leading provider of travel insurance and assistance, and US Airways Vacations today announced a partnership to offer travel protection to travelers booking vacations on www.usairwaysvacations.com and through the company's reservation center. Beginning this month, US Airways Vacations customers can purchase the Travel Protection Plan, which combines US Airways Vacations' existing cancellation waiver with new Access America post-departure insurance benefits and 24-hour emergency assistance services.

"Our customers have enjoyed the peace of mind that our waiver program provides," says Travis Christ, vice president, sales and marketing for US Airways. "By including Access America post-departure benefits, our customers will save time and money by one-stop-shopping for all their travel protection needs."

"Buying the Travel Protection Plan through US Airways Vacations is a great way for travelers to easily protect their trip investment and their vacation memories," said Beth Godlin, Senior Vice President of Travel Markets for Access America. "This insurance gives their customers convenience, affordability and peace of mind."

The Travel Protection Plan will be offered to US Airways Vacations customers as part of the cancellation waiver for only $49.00 per person for domestic travel and $69.00 per person for international travel. It must be purchased at the time that travel arrangements are booked and paid for.
